Campaigners Fight at Anderson. Campaigners Fight at Anderson.

Anderson, August 16.—The attendance on the State campaign meeting was, according to the statement of the candidates, the largest that had greeted them in the State. The candidates for Governor and Attorney General appeared and had their say and nothing out of the usual routine occurred. Each candidate was accorded a respectful hearing and some applause.

Geo. D. Tillman and Mr. Featherstone were the recipients of flowers.

The sensational event of the occasion was a fist flight between W. D. Mayfield and J. J. Me-Mahan, candidates for Superintendent of Education, toward the close. It was entirely unexpected. Many of the people had left and nobody was expecting trouble. MeMahan was speaking. He said that Mayfield had circulated a printed speech, not delivered in his presence, reflecting upon him and he proceded to denounce Mayfield soverely.

Mayfield, who is over six feet high and heavily built, rose and called out "stop!"

McMahan refused to pause and Mayfield interrupted him and turned to the crowd, shouting: "Fellow-citiz-on, i have had to shap this man's face before."

McMahan instantly faced his big antagonist nd said quickly, sharply and with shrill distinetness:

"You are a liar."
"You are a liar."
Maylield struck at him heavily, but rather awkwardly. McMahan was ready and was too quick for him, catching the blow on his right run. While the same motion meMahan drove his left fist true and havd into Maylield's eye, staggering him. Before Maylield could recover or McMahan could follow up his advantage Chief of Police Dillingham had jumped on the platform and thrust himself between them.

He arrested both and required them to give bond for their appearance at the mayor's court to-morrow morning. o-morrow morning. McMahan was cool and finished his speech liter the fight. Mayfield's eye is badly bruised and blackened.
